BENEFIT OPTIONS

BASIC BENEFIT

Pays only you throughout your retirement lifetime.
No survivor option.

SURVIVOR OPTIONS

Continuing benefit to your survivor after your death.

SMALL PENSION PAYOUT

If your Basic Benefit pension is $100 or less per month, you will receive a onetime payout.

BASIC BENEFIT

OPTION A

OPTION B

OPTION C

100%

Survivor Option<sup>1</sup>

You receive a reduced benefit (generally, 85% depending on age).
Survivor receives 100% of that reduced benefit.

50%

Survivor Option<sup>2</sup>

Reduces your benefit and pays your survivor 50% of your benefit.

120 Payments

Certain Option<sup>3</sup>

Pays you 96% of your basic benefit and pays your survivor the same benefit up to 120 payments for any remaining payments.

- 1 Survivor must be your spouse or former spouse. Former spouse may receive a benefit only with an approved Domestic Relations Order.
- 2 Survivor must be your spouse, former spouse, another person age 40 or older who has received your support for at least one year prior to your retirement, or a dependent child who is physically or mentally incompetent. Former spouse may receive a benefit only with an approved Domestic Relations Order.
- 3 You will receive your reduced benefit for 120 payments. If you die before receiving 120 payments, your survivor will receive the remainder of your 120 payments. With this option, you may name anyone as your survivor, not just your spouse. If you live beyond 120 payments, your benefit will continue to be paid to you for the remainder of your lifetime, but no survivor benefit will be paid after you die.
